SOUTHERN AM RECAP

The week of July 14-17 was host to some of the best amateurs golfers around. Top college players and other mid amateurs competed in the 115th Southern Amateur Championship. Ohio State's Maxwell Moldovan shot a record score of 20 under par shattering Justin Leonard's previous record. Two of our very own Ford Clegg and Cohen Trolio had great showings at 11 under and 9 under respectively. Congratulations to all the players and thanks to the Southern Golf Association for a awesome and well run event!!

WINE of the month

WINE OF THE MONTH FOR AUGUST:

ELOUAN ROSAE' 2017

To help cancel out the "Dog Days of August" I have chosen the fresh and bright ELOUAN ROSAE' 2017 from a blend of pinot noir grapes grown in the best Oregon Vineyards of Willamette, Umqua, and Rouge Valleys. Winemaker and owner, Joseph Wagner, is another of the siblings of the great Caymus Wagner family to strike out on his own. This pink Rosae' is full of rich, strawberry, and raspberry fruit; vibrant with some crisp acidity that matches so well with hot summer fare. Served COLD it is a perfect accompaniment to ham, cheese, shrimp, and most lighter pork and beef dishes, BBQ pork and chicken too, or just a cold drink to enjoy while sitting around the pool or patio. Rated around 87 plus points by most experts which is high for a Rosae', try in August only by the glass for only $6.50 per glass! Well that pigskin time is just around the corner and this wine will also be very good in September! Tom Storey, Cellar Master.
