Merry Christmas

Rosemary

On behalf of our members and staff, we want to thank Perry and Lori Seal for their dedication and commitment towards the Old Waverly Food and Beverage Department. Their work over the past 2 years is truly commendable and we appreciate their contribution to Old Waverly. The knowledge they have shared with our Food and Beverage Team has been of great value and we look forward to continued growth and success moving forward. We are wishing Perry and Lori all the best in their future endeavors.

BRYAN CUP

Old Waverly was host to its Annual MGA Team Championship November 9-10. Mother Nature was its best in years with temps in the mid 60's providing a great weekend of championship golf. Teams are composed of 5 members of Mississippi Clubs counting 4 low scores each day for a two day total. Old Waverly competed to the end and finished second behind Country Club of Jackson after firing a outstanding Sunday total of 285, with Old Waverly member Stuart Horsley leading the way with a Sunday 69. Old Waverly's score of 602 was five strokes behind CCJ. Thanks to David Griffin, Tracey Cockerham, Richard Reed, Chris Mills, and Wilkes Bryan for competing for Old Waverly in this great Championship!

WINE of the month

As we move into the Christmas Holiday month of December, it seems appropriate to offer as Wine of the Month a fine red wine that should marry well with Holiday and Christmas Fare. Old Waverly recently secured the lovely Meomi Pinot Noir 2017 from vineyards in Mendocino, Santa Barbara, and Sonoma counties in California wine country. Founded by Joe Wagner of the famous Caymus family (though recently sold to Constellation Brands), the 2017 matches well with tomato based pasta, grilled lamb, richer sea foods, even pizza, but especially with roast turkey and game! Silky, supple, balanced as to acidity Barry & Angie Keel #3020 with richer spicy flavors of strawberry and cherry, try by the glass only in December for just $6.00 ! Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays! Tom Storey, Cellar Master
